96 Points – James Halliday - The Weekend Australian 2021 “This doesn’t just tick the boxes, it stamps them for a cabernet seeking to win a pinot noir lover’s heart. It has a floral, spicy and bay leaf first-up bouquet and split-second time in the mouth before the gates swing gently shut with classy cabernet tannins. 14.2% alc, 96 points, drink to 2029.”
