2024 Eddystone Point Riesling

96 points - Huon Hooke – The Real Review 2022– “Lovely array of floral aromas, gardenia, boronia, lemon zest, a twist of spiced honey. The wine is very intense and striking on the palate, firm and concentrated with power and punch, and a long finish that is cleansing and appetizing. The acidity is bright and tense but also smooth and avoids hardness. Still, it would work best with food, such as a quite rich fish dish. Very impressive young Riesling with a bright future.”

94 points - Regan Drew – Wine Pilot 2025 “With fruit sourced from Eddystone Point’s home vineyards in Pipers River and fruit from the Derwent Valley in the central-south of Tasmania. Fermentation in oak barrels for some extra intrigue and depth. Fragrant and alluring. Green apple, lime flesh and with a mountain stream minerality of river stones, blanketed by sweet jasmine florals. Lively and zingy, native fingerlime bursts over a wonderfully chalky, talc-like texture. Intensity matched with long refreshment.”
