Rolf Binder Bull's Blood Shiraz Mataro 2020

94 Halliday Points "I remember going to the Rolf Binder cellar door for the first time and asking to taste the Bulls Blood. Mrs Binder looked at me through squinty eyes and said, "Are you going to buy anything?" I loved that. I ended up doing vintage there in 2005, and Mrs Binder made the best Hungarian goulash for the cellar hands, but she had attitude – just like the wine. Deeply coloured and packed with black cherry, blueberry and macerated plum fruits. Oodles of spice, dark chocolate, vanillin oak, nutmeg, olive tapenade and earth. Toothsome with a mildly broody edge, savoury palate shape, fine grained tannins and a plume of spiced black cherry fruits on the finish." - Dave Brookes
